CHEYENNE - Chance Sutton hit an RBI single in the fifth inning to lead the Cheyenne Mustangs to a 9-5 win over Miles City (Montana) on Sunday to complete a three-game weekend sweep.

The Mustangs (3-0) won the first two games in their opening weekend series 13-11 and 19-4 on Saturday.

Dakota Merritt led Cheyenne at the plate by going 3 for 4 with three RBIs, including a one-run triple in the fifth inning and a two-run single in the sixth. Riley Schlimm drove in two runs while going 2 for 4.

The Mustangs were quick on the base paths as well by stealing seven total bases. AJ Folds and Sutton each had two.

Folds allowed four runs on six hits while striking out six and walking two in four innings of work in the start. Merritt and Cody Dugas each struck out two in relief.

Dustin Benson took the loss for Miles City after allowing six runs on six hits across two innings. He struck out four and walked three.
